I think it's great that we have made contact with each other! I got curious today and went up to the Erwin Library to look up the old Boonville Heralds (on micro film). No luck with Diana, but I found Abigail's obit and just a death notice for Stephen. Do you have Abigail's obit? It's not that long, so I will type it in case you don't:
Mrs Stephen Johnson
Former resident of Boonville Passed Away in Utica
After an illness of less than two weeks, resulting from a fall, Abigail Johnson, widow of the late Stephen Johnson, died at a local hospital in Utica July 6. Mrs Johnson was born in Salisbury Center in 1818. In 1837 she was married to Stephen Johnson. About five years ago she went to Utica to reside with her son, the late WH Johnson at 15 Waverly Place. After his death she lived with her grandson, Fenton E Johnson at 364 Genesee St. Although 92 years old, Mrs Johnson had the ability to see, hear and get around as well as persons many years her junior. There survive one brother, Jonas Johnson of Orleans; one son, Amos Johnson of 21 Jason Place, Utica, and five grandchildren. She resided in Boonville many years and was quite well known here. The remains were brought to Boonville for interment.

SO.....she had a brother Jonas, too! I didn't have that. But by that we know that all the rest of her siblings died before 1910. And she had one son, Amos, I had that. The rest of her children died before 1910 too then. Maybe Jonas was the youngest? I did have William H. but no death date, and I had a death date for Jasper of 1898. Was Fenton a son of William H? I would love to have what ever info you can give me. Do you have a copy of that book? If so, lucky you. Wish more people would have written family books! I will ask my brother to check and see if there is anything on Lysander there, also Abigail and Stephen and the other names you mentioned. I love solving mysteries!! Oh, in the paper it said Stephen died on the 12th, I had the 13th. Which do you have?

Well, guess I will go for now. I played hookey from work today and have some more stuff to get done around here. I'll be waiting your response.....cuz.....Linda

Mrs. Sophronia Edgerton
Aged 86 Years Died at Her Home Near Denley Friday

On Friday morning at her home near Denley, occurred the death of Mrs. Sophronia Edgergon aged 86 years and 11 months. Deceased had been in poor health for some time past caused by the infirmities of her advanced age and death was not unlooked for. Mrs. Edgerton was the daughter of Lysander and Diana Johnson and was born in the town of Salisbury August 22, 1822. She was married to Daniel Edgerton on March 19, 1842 and for the past forty-six years has lived in the house where she died. She was always much attached to her home and family ties and had a kind disposition and was beloved and respected by all who knew her. The funeral services were held from her late home on Sunday afternoon, Rev TF Jessup of Boonville officiating and interment was made in the family plot in Talcottville Cemetery. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. E J Talcott and Mrs. Orville Hall of Boonville, and one sister Obigail (Abigail?) Johnson, who resides in Utica. The sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends and neighbors is extended to the bereaved relatives.

Subject: Hello cousin...

Hi. Guess it is safe to say that we are cousins, however distant. I am so glad you saw that flowers I planted, although the last time I was up there, like you, a couple of weeks ago, they didn't look to good. Hope they do better. You really have me wondering now on where I got the info on Van Steenburg! Guess I will have to search my files too....lol! So you think Lysander is buried in Salisbury? That could be. Guess I will break down and try to find out from the guy who has the records for the cemetery who is buried next to Diana. He is not that nice to deal with, but my brother seems to get farther than I do. I had 3 children listed for Lysander and Diana: Lysander b 2/22/1815, Abigail b 8/28/1818 d 7/6/1910, and Sophronia b 8/22/1822 d 7/23/1909. I have Abigail married in 1837 to Stephen Johnson, children; William Henry b6/26/1840, Jasper b 1846 d 1898, Jason b 1852 d 1898, and Amos b 1859. Please tell me if any of this info, or dates matches what you have. I did not have a Thomas or a Calvin. Before I forget, who is your aunt that you speak of? ANd where do you live? This is Sophronia's info; married Daniel Edgerton 3/19/1842, children; Lora Hannah Edgerton b 8/8/1847 d 1/20/1929, Loami b 1/11/1849 d 4/12/1907, Diana b 1851, Celestia "Lettie" b 1/1855, Lillian b 4/1862 d 11/21/1953, and Louella, no dates. Lora Hannah married Earl J Talcott 8/14/1869 he was b 4/26/1846 d 9/3/1909. They had children; Herbert b 9/4/1870 d 4/6/1950, Lulla May b 5/5/1872, Adelbert H. b 3/17/1874 d 1952, Bertha b 1876 d 1886, and my grandfather Daniel Albert Talcott b 10/1/1880 d 6/24/1963. Daniel married Mary Ellen Duvelow 6/2/1915, she was b 1/21/1893 d 11/15/1984, children; Doris LaBelle, still living, Erma Beatrice, my mother, still living, and Douglas b 7/9/1925 d 11/1/2002. I have spouses for most all of these, but didn't know how much info you wanted. I am going to email you a copy of Sophronia's obit in a seperate email. I just looked it up and it seems we are 3rd cousins. Cool. Do you mind me asking you something? Your name is Chris. Is that short for Christopher or Christine? I doesn't matter in the least to me, but would just like to know. I had that happen on my Talcott line. I heard from someone named Jackie Lee, I assumed because of the name that it was a female. Wrong....it was a male. So, just to clear thing up.....lol! Please share what info you have on Abigail, Thomas and Calvin.....ok? I will be anxious to hear from you again. your cuz.....Linda

Subject: Johnson/Johnston/Hoag - Boonville

Hi there. I posted a reply to your query on the Oneida County site, but I know from personal experience that I haven't always received notifications of replys to queries of mine, even if I check the box that says I will. Lysander and Diana were my gr gr gr grandparents. I plant flowers on Diana's grave every year, and have been doing so for the past 3 years (when I found out who she was and where she was). I was born and raised in Boonville. One question of mine is that I have her maiden name as Van Steenburg. Have you ever came across this? I couldn't tell you where I got this info, have checked so many sources, from on line to the Herkimer county historical society. A Boonville historian of the past also had penciled in on the cemetery list she had "Hoag" next to her name. Could she have been married more than once? I have had that problem with others I have researched. I am so glad I saw your query and wonder how much info you have. My interest initially was their daughter Sophronia's husband Daniel Edgerton. I have been trying for years to find out what Edgerton family he belonged to. I have some info, but not much. I was trying to tye him into the Edgerton that married Nat Foster. Being they all were from Salisbury NY I feel they must belong to the same family. There just weren't that many people around back then! I have also looked for Sophronia's sister Abigail's grave. Her and her husband are supposed to be buried in Boonville Cemetery (Stephen Johnson). Wow. Please email me! I will be waiting to hear from you. You would be the first person on this line I have had contact with. This is great!.....Linda Glover ps.....do you know where Lysander is buried? Is it Salisbury or Boonville. There is a broken off stone next to Diana's in Boonville that I just assumed might be his. I have been to Salisbury cemeteries, but not sure if I had his name back when I was there. Just wondering.....

One peculiarity has struck me forcibly wherever I have been in Wisconsin; that is, the apparent high degree of culture, cleanliness and the thriftiness of the farmers. There is not one-half to remind one of a new country as there are in many places in New York, and this is attributable chiefly to the fact, that almost every quarter section (160 acres) in its natural state, is ready for plowing and fencing, without the labor of felling trees—enough to burthen the navy of the world; and partly to the fact that the class of settlers are off-shoots from the hardy and industrious sons of New England or the farmers of New York and Northern Ohio. Fifty years labor in New England or twenty years toil in New York are not equal to three industrious years in Wisconsin. But I have not said a word about Madison, the Capital and gem of the State, a glance at which I shall reserve for my next letter.

seems incredible that any same woman could thus deliberately rush to an ignominious fate, but the facts are indisputable. And what a fate is hers, who takes that one false step! It is impossible for her to escape it—unless Death shall mercifully gather her to his unsullying bosom. No man was ever yet faithful to his criminal vows; no woman ever yet retained her criminal protector, after her beauty was despoiled of its freshness and its bloom. Desertion is sure to come; deeper degradation follows hard upon it; conscience tortures the despairing victim; infamy drags her down—and still lower down, until an unknown grave in mercy hides her from the world and from herself.

Can a woman, or a girl, who is gifted with the ability to think, risk this fearful doom, upon the mere promise of a man whose promise, itself stamps him a villain! —N. Y. Ledger.

day last week from what might have been a very serious accident. He was engaged in repairing the roof of Rev. Owen F. Perry's large barn on the latter's farm, four miles from this village. At the time he was at work getting the ladders in position. In some manner or another the ladders which he had tied together parted and he fell from the roof to the ground, a distance of fifty feet. Had he not been able to grasp for just a moment the top of the barn door while descending, and thus broken the fall, he would undoubtedly have sustained injuries that would have relegated him to idleness, as far as work is concerned, for a considerable length of time. As it is he only feels a little stiff and disjointed.

Mrs. John Faulkes of 40 Spring street, Utica, spent a few days recently the guest of her sister, Mrs. John H. Williams.

Griffith Jones is changing the appearance of his residence and at the same time making it more comfortable by adding to it a commodious porch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mizner and Miss Anna Williams of Utica are the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Roberts on Maple avenue. Mr. Mizner is an expert jeweler and has been employed in that capacity for several years by Joseph Wineburgh, the well known jeweler. He is also an adept at handling a gun, as the bag full of game which he secured a day ago attests.

Will Evans left last Monday on his bicycle for his home in Delta. Will is now a good rider, having learned the art rapidly.

Smith Nichols will leave this place, where he has been a resident for many years, and take up his residence with his daughter, Mrs. Robert Ingalls, in Trenton. Mr. Nichols' many friends will miss him greatly as will also the Methodist society of the village, of which he is a devoted member. He will not, we hope, forego the pleasure of visiting his old companions.

Well done of God, to halve the lot,
And give her all the sweetness!
To us the empty room and cot—
To her the Heaven's completences.

To us, this grave—to her, the rows
The mystic palm-trees spring in;
To us, the silence in the house—
To her the choral singing!

For us to hope and bear on!

DEATH BY HANGING.

The Verdict of the Coroner's Jury at the Calvin Johnston Inquest.

An inquest on the death of Calvin Johnston, who was found hanging in an outhouse at his home in this village last week Wednesday, was held Thursday afternoon by Coroner C. B. Tefft of Utica. The following jury was empaneled: Henry McClusky, foreman; James Hyland, Charles Wolfe, W. H. Cook, Jonathan Meeker, Eli H. McClusky, Edgar Hughes, Alfred W. Sabine, Walter S. Booth, Roselle Pitcher.

Dr. John F. Perry being examined said he had prescribed for deceased for eight or nine months past, that he was nervous and complained of pain in the head, sides and bowels, and unable to sleep nights; was low-spirited and unable to work; death was caused by strangulation.

Edgar Johnston, son of deceased, testified that his father had been despondent for nearly a year; his health had been poor and he was tired of living; he suffered greatly from pain and sleeplessness; never thought he would take his own life; he had refused to take any medicine for some days. The particulars of finding deceased hanging as given in last week's issue were taken. The testimony of Diana Johnston, Arthur Hart and Eli Spencer was also taken but nothing of an important nature was shown. The jury brought in a verdict that deceased came to his death by hanging himself while laboring under a temporary aberration of the mind.

Monday evening, June 18, Mrs. Malvina Johnston, wife of Alonzo Johnston, passed peacefully away at her home in this village, after a long struggle with that dread disease, paralysis. She was born in Boonville, June 15, 1846, and 31 years ago married Alonzo Johnston, who with two daughters, Mrs. John Hewett of New York Mills and Miss Johnston, are left to mourn the loss of one who made their home earth's brightest spot. During her long illness she never complained, but was bright and cheerful. Beside her family she leaves three brothers, Thomas and Abram Hart of Boonville and Michael of Constableville and one sister, Mrs. Henry Johnston of Clinton. The funeral services will be held at her late home on Academy street, Thursday at 2 o'clock, Rev. S. O. Barnes officiating.

Some members of this family have used the Johnston spelling, probably to distinguish themselves from other nearby Johnsons. I have done the same although it has since become apparent that Johnson is the more common and original form.

INTRODUCTION

As early as 1640 the Connecticut Court of Election ordered all magistrates to keep a record of the marriages they performed. In 1644 the registration of births and marriages became the official responsibility of town clerks and registrars, with deaths added to their duties in 1650. From 1660 until the close of the Revolutionary War these vital records of birth, marriage, and death were generally well kept, but then for a period of about two generations until the mid-nineteenth century, the faithful recording of vital records declined in some towns.

General Lucius Barnes Barbour was the Connecticut Examiner of Public Records from 1911 to 1934 and in that capacity directed a project in which the vital records kept by the towns up to about 1850 were copied and abstracted. Barbour previously had directed the publication of the Bolton and Vernon vital records for the Connecticut Historical Society. For this new project he hired several individuals who were experienced in copying old records and familiar with the old script.

Barbour presented the completed transcriptions of town vital records to the Connecticut State Library where the information was typed onto printed forms. The form sheets were then cut, producing twelve small slips from each sheet. The slips for most towns were then alphabetized and the information was then typed a second time on large sheets of rag paper, which were subsequently bound into separate volumes for each town. The slips for all towns were then interfiled, forming a statewide alphabetized slip index for most surviving town vital records.

The dates of coverage vary from town to town, and of course the records of some towns are more complete than others. There are many cases in which an entry may appear two or three times, apparently because that entry was entered by one or more persons. Altogether the entire Barbour Collection--one of the great genealogical manuscript collections and one of the last to be published--covers 137 towns and comprises 14,333 typed pages.
